SUPERINTENDENT—SCHOOL BOARD—OFFICE

Mr. John Wilbanks
Superintendent

SCHOOL BOARD: Jimmy Schell; Wesley Grau, Sec.; Stanley Fury, Allen Edwards, Joe Burnett, President.

From Mr. Wilbanks: This yearbook will serve as a record book of the 83-84 school year at Grady High and Elementary. My thanks and appreciation are extended to the girls for putting together such a fine, pictorial compilation of this year's events.

As we thumb through the pages of this book, we are reminded of many successes and victories. For most of you, a feeling of pride in accomplishments will come upon you, achievements were reached, because you believed in yourself. For others, your accomplishments in the 83-84 school year fell short of what could have been because you failed to believe in yourself. An unnamed author wrote:

Don't think too lowly of yourself,
Nor too highly.
It's just as big a mistake to say,
Two and two make three as
Two and two make five.

I challenge you to use your experiences in this school year as a springboard for greater accomplishments next year and for a lifetime!

Sincerely,
John Wilbanks.

FFA AWARDS BANQUET

Grady FFA awards presented

GRADY — The annual FFA parent-member banquet was recently held at Grady to honor those who have helped and supported the chapter, and to honor those members who have worked so hard in all their dealings.

The state-bound Greenhand parliamentary procedure team opened the banquet, and team members President Wendy Gerhart; Vice President Shanna Sumrall; Secretary Kayla Rutherford; Treasurer Martha Hudson; Reporter Jamie Schell; Advisor Landon Vaughn; and Sentinel Shelby Lockmiller, were recognized during the banquet.

Raynee Gerhart served as master of ceremonies as presentation of awards for achievement and judging were made. A trophy was presented to the outstanding judge in each of the contests in which Grady was a participant and state and national teams were announced prior to the winners.

Taking the Horse judging award was Larry Don Rush; Livestock judging went to Julie Blackburn; Wool judging to Dennis Fury; Shop judging to Tommy Thompson; Dairy judging to Todd Northcutt; Entomology judging to Julie Blackburn; Land judging to Shanna Sumrall; and Crops to Kye Grau.

Financial backers for national field trips received a standing ovation for their support and those who provided transportation for FFA members were presented gifts of appreciation. Receiving these honors were Bill and Wanda Page, Barbara Bryant, C. J. Blackburn, and Pam and Jerry Northcutt.

A scholarship award for the highest grade point average went to Shanna Sumrall. Other achievement awards included, the citizenship award presented to Joe Parker as outstanding citizen; receiving the leadership award was Tommy Thompson; the outstanding reasons award went to Tammy Lockmiller as chapter farmer, and the greenhand award went to Wendy Gerhart. The blue and gold award which is an given to the outstanding FFA member, went to Raynee Gerhart.

The Most Improved Judge award was given to Wendell Barber, and the Shop award was given to Dennis Fury and Monte Mote.

Receiving the public speaking award was Shanna Sumrall who placed third in the district contest; Herdsmanship awards were given to Larry Don Rush, James Schell, and Tommy Thompson, for their devotion to projects in Beef, Sheep, and Swine respectively.

First and second place state-bound Greenhands presented the FFA Creed and the Creed Award was later given to Wendy Gerhart.

A scholarship in the amount of $800 will be awarded to Rick Queener as winner of the State Judging Contest in the production sweepstakes. The Most Competitive Award went to Shanna Sumrall and Julie Blackburn for their outstanding achievements during the year.

The DeKalb Award, which goes to the outstanding senior member was presented to Todd Northcutt, and Daryl Baldwin a representative of Clovis Production Credit Association presented Julie Blackburn with the Record Keeping Award and a $25 dollar check.

The Star Greenhand Award, the highest within the chapter, went to Shanna Sumrall. Star Chapter Farmer Award was given to Raynee Gerhart for outstanding membership as a chapter farmer. Lisa Page was presented with customary sweetheart jacket to honor her as the 1984-85 Grady FFA Sweetheart.

Chapter officers performed the honorary chapter farmer ceremony which allows parents and or friends of the FFA to be honorary members in the chapter. Those who attained this membership were Mr. and Mrs. LaRoy Lockmiller, and Mrs. Nancy Blackburn. Also during the banquet, Storm Gerhart was presented with a gift thanking him for his work as advisor.

Raynee Gerhart was presented with the Outgoing President's Award and then David Parker led the assembly in Benediction.

Grady, Region

Coach King was justified in his pride at the job his Lady Bronchos did in winning the regional title over the Melrose Lady Buffs, Saturday night. His girls led from the first period on and never relinquished their lead, at any time during the game. The Lady Bronchos saw a 28 - 21 margin increase to 69 - 43, at game's end.

Shelley Lockmiller, of Grady, led all scorers with 24, Raynee Gerhart had 15 and Tammy Lockmiller scored 14. Other scoring were Julie Blackburn with 6, Tresa Shafer 6, Shanna Sumrall 2 and Jamie Schell 2.

For Melrose, Gwynne Bradley had 12 and Patty Moberly 9. Brenda champs

Hightower did not play.

The Lady Bronchos will advance to the state tourney for the first time since 1980 when they lost their opening round game to Cliff. The Broncs will have their chance at reenge on Thursday, at 3:30, when they open again with Cliff, at the Sandia High Gym.

Gerhart on Star

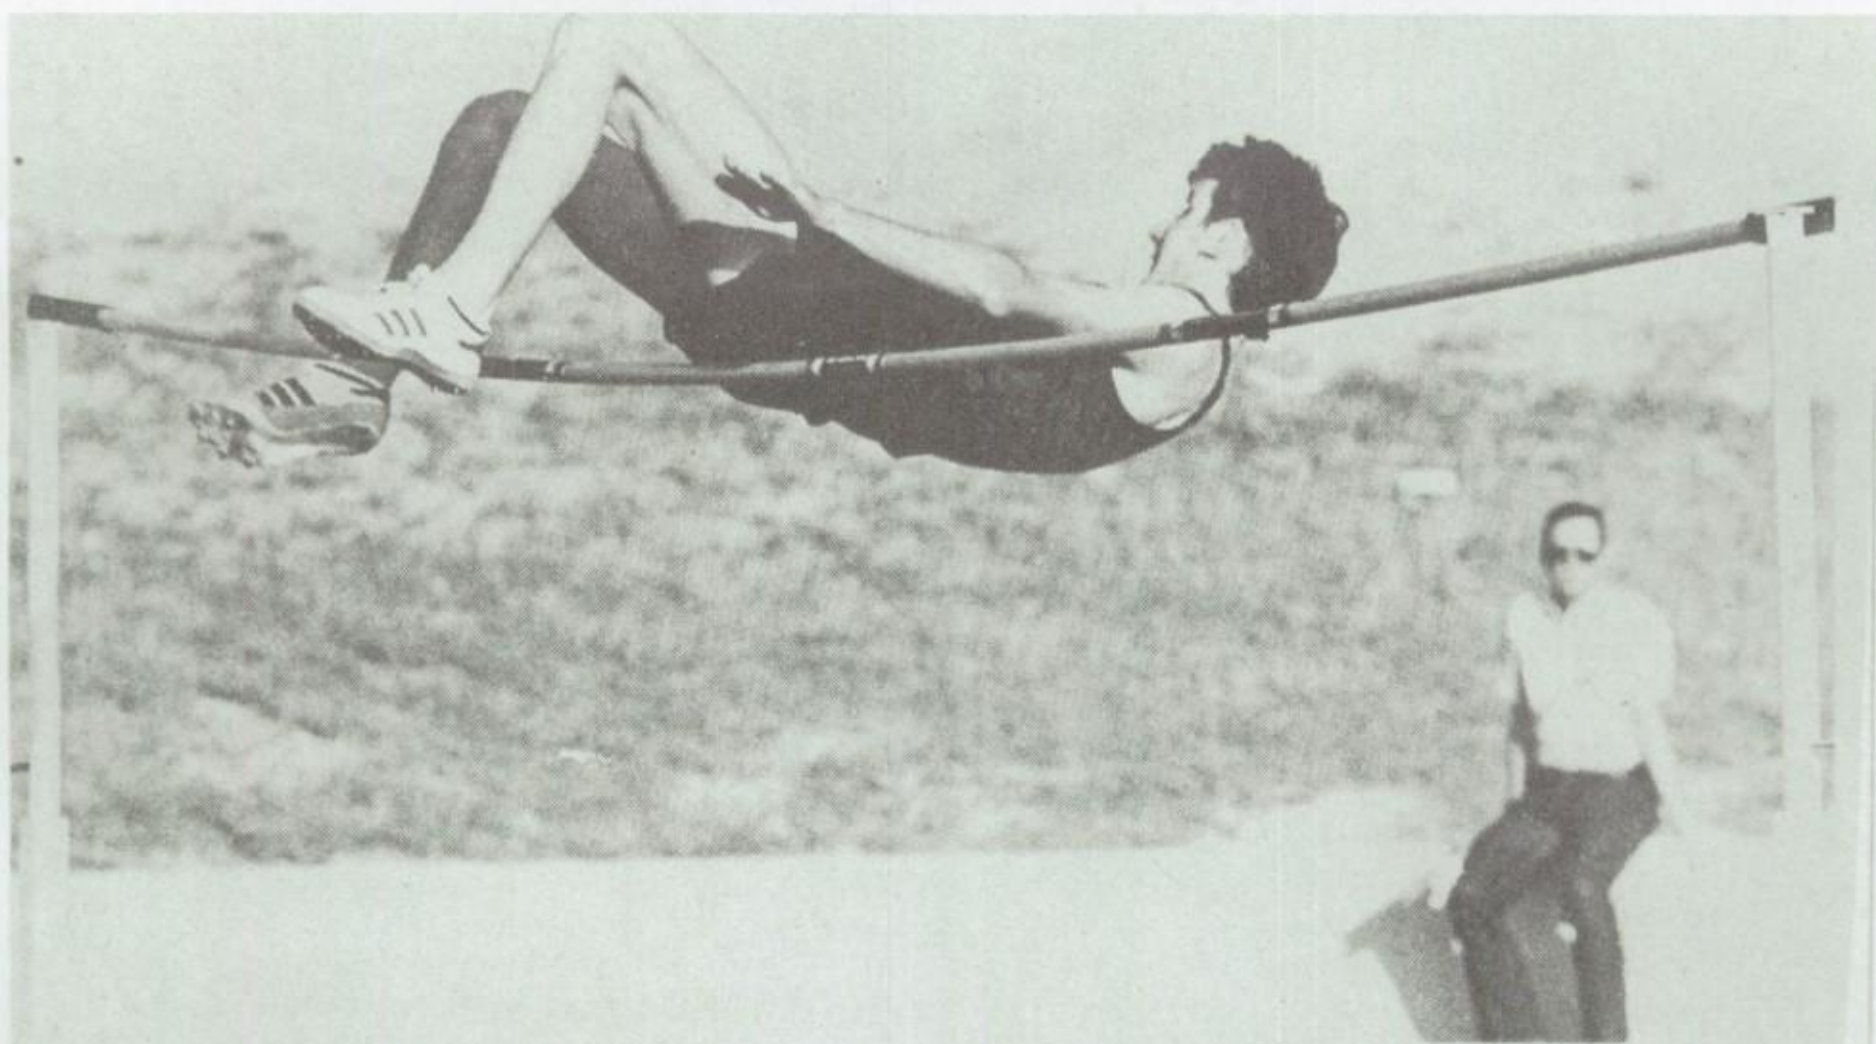

EXITING IN STYLE—Grady senior Raynee Gerhart placed second in the long jump at state, wrapping up a fine all-around high school sports career in the process. (Photo by Pancho Morris, Portales News-Tribune)

Coach Larry King's Lady Bronchos finished 26-3 overall, losing to two-time state champ Melrose, 58-57, in the Class A title game. King loses seniors Raynee Gerhart (a North-South all-star pick in two sports) and Tammy Lockmiller but returns nine other letterwomen for next season.

Returning starters Julie Blackburn, Tresa Shafer and Shelly Lockmiller head the list of returnees, while also back are Brenda Ford, Jamie Schell, Shanna Sumrall, Kye Grau, Debbie Fury and Wendy Gerhart. King also expects help next year from eighth-graders Tisha Mota and Cino Burnett.

RECORD-SETTER—Grady's Larry Powell, a junior, and Cloudcroft's Tony Bell both broke the previous state record for the high jump in Class A by leaping 6-7¼. Bell ended up winning the state title based on fewer misses at 6-4, but Powell will be back to take another shot at regaining the title he won as a sophomore. For more on the state track meet, see page 8. (Photo by Pancho Morris, Portales News-Tribun

'Seniors' and GHS turnaround

By Boots Rabb
Although the Lady Bronchos will likely be one of the favorites to capture the state crown, it won't come easy, King cautions.
"We've got to go in there and play well, or it'll be a short trip," he said.

Staff Report

GRADY—The Grady Lady Broncho gained some momentum for the upcoming state tournament by winning the Region B Tournament in dominant fashion.

The Lady Bronchos rode a big third quarter performance to a 69-43 win over the Melrose Lady Buffaloes in the regional title game at Broncho Gym Saturday. Grady increased a 28-21 halftime lead to 45-25 by the end of the third period, and the Lady Bronchos never looked back.

Shelly Lockmiller led Grady to its 24th win in 26 tries by scoring 24 points. Raynee Gerhart was next with 15, and Tammy Lockmiller added 14. Gwen Bradley led Melrose with 12, but Sandy Moore, the Lady Buffs' second-leading scorer in Friday's win over San Jon, was held to just two points.

"I thought there were two keys in the game. Our fast break was the big difference, and we shut down Sandy Moore," said Grady coach Larry King.

Grady to state

For Grady, Julie Blackburn led the way with 17 points, and Raynee Gerhart was next with 15. The Bronchos wrapped up their season by building an 18-point lead in the third period. Valda Cavalico with eight.

plenty to be proud of just the same.

The two seniors have been mainstays in the resurgence of Grady girls' basketball in the past five years, culminating with a trip to the state finals. There, Grady lost a heartbreaking 58-57 decision to bitter rival Melrose.

Tammy, a 5-3 guard, has started for Grady since her eighth grade days, while Raynee, a 5-4 forward, is a five-year letterwoman and a four-year starter.

In the early days, the Bronchos posted a 1-1 record, although they go 1-0 in 1980 by coming out tough to beat. That statement is reflected by the record of Grady's two years, the Grady junior high and junior varsity teams, which have recorded 47 wins against only seven losses and have won the District 7A title in each of the past two years.

"It feels great. It feels like we really accomplished something," said Tammy about being a part of coach."

Larry King, Grady's coach for the past three years, has turned the Lady Bronchos into a major force among eastside teams in basketball, track and volleyball. King coached the two seniors as eighth graders before moving to Raton for one season.

King returned to Grady in the fall of 1981, and the Lady Bronchos have dominated District 7A girls' basketball since then.

The loss of our seniors is going to hurt, but we have some good young people coming in with experience, are going to be in the record of Grady's girls' basketball teams, and we expect to be undefeated.

Tammy said, "I think they'll stay competitive and be good for a lot of years," and Raynee said, "The reason we were good this year was because we had a good B team."

She added, "We really appreciate Coach King and all

Six area girls honored in A

By Boots Rabb
Sports Editor

Six area girls' basketball players, including the entire starting five and the head coach from Grady, earned mention on this year's Albuquerque Journal Class A All-State team.

Leading the way from District 7A were first-team picks Raynee Gerhart and Shelly Lockmiller, both of Grady. Their coach, Larry King, earned Class A Coach of the Year honors.

Lady Bronchos Julie Blackburn, Tammy Lockmiller and Tresa Shafer were all named honorable mention, as was San Jon's Sarah Lee.

"I was very pleased," said King after learning of his Coach of the Year distinction. "It's quite an honor. I felt there were several other coaches who were deserving, but I was really honored."

In addition to his own award, King was pleased that all five of his starters received some mention. "All five were very deserving," he said.

Gerhart, a 5-4 senior, averaged 13 points and seven rebounds a game, while Lockmiller, a 5-8 freshman, tallied an average of 12 points and 10 boards each outing.

"In Shelly's case, she played really well all season. But she came on really strong and was awesome by the end of the season," said King.

"In Raynee's case, she played well all year long. I was especially pleased with her defensive play. I can't think of anyone anywhere who played better defense," he added.

Grady's three honorable mention choices were 5-9 junior Julie Blackburn, 5-3 senior Tammy Lockmiller and 5-3 junior Tresa Shafer.

"Julie was highly underrated. She does a lot of little things that people don't notice. She's not flashy, but she does several things well," King noted.

"In Tammy's case, she was our most consistent player. She did a good job on offense, and she played smart basketball."

"I felt like Tresa was the most improved player we had. She came on and filled Lanie Bold's (point guard) position adequately. She played far beyond what I expected from her, and she was just super on our fast break, I thought," said King.

He added, "Although they weren't honored, we had two subs, Kye Grau and Shanna Sumrall, who played very well in their roles when they were in the game."

San Jon's Sarah Lee, a 5-7 junior, was the other area player picked honorable mention all-state. She came on strong at the end of the season for coach Carolyn Franklin's Lady Coyotes, including an 18-point effort that sparked San Jon to an upset win over Grady.

In addition to Gerhart and Shelly Lockmiller, other first-team picks were Player of the Year Brenda Hightower of Melrose, Suzanne McKeen of Reserve and Cheryl Scott of Texico.

Second-team choices were Toni Brooks of Tatum, April Lee of Weed, Molly Burds of Cloudcroft, Rose Rodich of Melrose and Susan Peek of Cloudcroft.

Bronchos win

TEXICO—The Grady Bronchos avenged their defeat in the District 7A tourney finals by downing the Logan Longhorns, 56-49, in the consolation game of the Region B Tournament Saturday.

Grady led by only two points, 35-33, heading into the fourth quarter but pulled away to win by seven. The Bronchos outscored Logan 21-16 in the final period.

Larry Rush led the Bronchos with 18 points, and Gary Northcutt chipped in 14. Jim and Clair tively.

The win gave Grady a one-game edge in the season series. The Bronchos (19-7 overall) won three times, while the Longhorns (16-10) came out on top twice in the hotly-contested five-game series during the season.

Tatum won the tournament in an upset, surprising host Texico, 53-52, in the title game Saturday night.

Bronchos win

For Grady, Gary Northcutt was high-point man with 16, and Larry Rush and Todd Northcutt added 12 apiece. But the Bronchos never managed to take the lead in the game and went cold in the final three minutes of the contest.

Logan's tough zone defense kept Grady bottled up in the first quarter, as Todd Northcutt's four points were not enough to offset Logan's eight markers in the opening period. The Bronchos then closed the gap to three on numerous occasions in the second period and even made it a two-point ss (44) while

In the second semifinal game, a standing-room only crowd saw the upstart Bronchos control the tempo and the boards against the home-standing Wolverines. But in the end, Grady's failures at the free throw line let Texico off the hook.

Early in the game, Grady, led by the rebounding of Larry Rush and Gary Northcutt, led by as much as four points and settled for a 12-12 tie at the end of the first period.

Texico managed a six-point lead midway through the second period, but again Rush and Northcutt led the Bronchos back. Only a breakaway steal by Texico's Kevin West in the final seconds of the period allowed Texico a halftime lead, 21-19.

Neither team managed much offense in the third period and Grady trailed 31-27 going into the fourth.

The Bronchos trailed 35-31 with 5:50 left in regulation, but two free throws by Clint Bunch and a Northcutt's score of an offensive rebound tied the game at 35-35.

Texico went back up by one, but Rush made a nice move on an inbounds play and gave the Bronchos the lead, 37-36, for the first time since the first quarter.

Then, with 3:13 left to play, reserve post Dennis Fury banked in a pair of free throws to give Grady a three-point advantage, 39-36.

Texico standout Brad Steward, who had been held in check most of the game by the solid Grady defense, pulled off an offensive rebound with 2:55 left, scored, and was fouled by Fury. Steward canned the free throw to tie the game at 39-39.

Northcutt had a chance to give Grady the lead with :57 left in regulation, but missed the front end of a one and one. The score remained tied at the end of regulation.

Both teams missed one and one chances in the first overtime, but neither team was able to score, sending the game to a second three-minute overtime period.

Grady held the ball until a turnover with 1:35 left gave it to Texico, but West missed at the :40 mark and Rush rebounded for Grady. Texico sent Bunch to the free throw line with :30 to play, but he missed the front end of the one and one.

Joe Steward missed a jumper for Texico with :20 left, but Terry Tubbs rebounded and scored for the Wolverines. West's steal with :12 left ended the Grady upset bid.

Gary Northcutt led all scorers with 16 points, while Rush added 12. West scored 15 for the Wolverines, while Tubbs and Brad Steward had 11 each.

Texico and Tatum, who earned state tourney berths with the wins, were to meet Saturday night for the Regional title. Grady and Logan were to play for third place.
